WHY?

IN LITERATURE

“We are drawn to leaders and organizations that are good at communicating what they believe. Their ability to make us feel like we belong, to make us feel special, safe and not alone is part of what gives them the ability to inspire us.”

“START WITH WHY” by Simon Sinek

WHY?

IN LITERATURE

“Teachers have more diverse classrooms today. We don’t have students sitting in front of us with the same background or experience, so teaching has to be different. It needs to build on individual and cultural experiences and their prior knowledge. It needs to be justice-oriented and reflect the social context we’re in now.”

WHY?

IN THE CLASSROOM

Where are you from? What do you like doing? What music do you like? What are you afraid of?

 Mentimeter

Poland, hanging out with my friends, pop, my mother-in-law

Georgia, sitting in my garden with my family, rock, war

Poland, doing yoga, classical music, cancer

Poland, travelling abroad, rock, the phone call from my son's kindergarten

Georgia, cooking, folk, being old

Poland, having fun, rock, my wife when I come back home late

WHAT FOR?

TWO MINDSETS BY CAROL S. DWECK

“Human resources are like natural resources; they’re often buried deep. You have to go looking for them, they’re not just lying around on the surface. You have to create the circumstances where they show themselves.”

Ken Robinson
